

To Michael Powell ,You totally ignored the vast majority of the American people who did not believe this was good for our country, and our democracy.You let the corporations and money talk again. You sold out Mike the same way your dad did. No wonder why so many are sick of our political system. We dont'have enough people who can simply do the right thing.